Legislative Update

efficiency, air emission standards and renewable sources of energy, all of which may impact Maryland's environment.

The General Assembly also is considering legislation, House Bill 590 and Senate Bill 509, which would implement an emissions inspection program for diesel vehicles. The roadside inspection program would be jointly regulated by the Department of the Environment, Department of Transportation and Maryland State Police.

Two other bills, House Bill 502 and Senate Bill 323, will require MDE to post ambient air monitoring data on the internet for public access. Senate Bill 599 would require nearby property owners to be notified of a proposed incinerator or landfill. House Bill 21, which would extend the sunset date for the Governor's Advisory Council on Environmental Justice, has been passed by the House.

The end of the 1999 Legislative Session of the Maryland General Assembly, Sine Die, is midnight April 12. The May edition of the MDEnvironment will contain a final legislative wrap up to inform you of the disposition of these pieces of legislation.
